

Lone Tree Symphony Orchestra Appoints New Executive Director

Lone Tree Symphony Orchestra Strengthens Resources

Lone Tree, CO - Lone Tree Symphony Orchestra (<http://lonetreesymphony.org>) announced today that Cindy Kessinger has joined the symphony as Executive Director to continue the orchestra's recent success during the 2016-17 season. Cindy comes to us with over 25 years experience in the music and media advertising industry. She is also a vocal coach and teaches voice to students of all ages. Cindy comments, "It's exciting to be a part of such a talented group of musicians, the devoted board and patrons, and our newly organized volunteer guild, the Symphomaniacs! I'm thrilled to continue the development of an already growing community orchestra that prides itself on performing concerts pleasing to all ages. I invite music lovers in the area to reach out to me if you would like to hear more about the Lone Tree Symphony Guild Volunteers, aka, Symphomaniacs. We plan to take Lone Tree and the surrounding area by storm!"

Jacinda Bouton, Music Director and Conductor said, "Cindy's wealth of experience, industry knowledge, and community connection has already made her a key addition to the LTSO family. We view her appointment as a sign of our commitment to being an orchestra the City of Lone Tree can be proud of. Our growth over the last 17-years led us to look for an addition to our team who will fit in with our goal of a high quality musical experience for both the musicians and our patrons. We are very fortunate that we were able to find someone of Cindy's caliber to fulfill this role."

Lisa Rigsby-Peterson/Executive Director, Lone Tree Arts Center, also commented, "As Cindy Kessinger joins the LTSO as its Executive Director, we look forward to working with her and continuing the special relationship that the City and the orchestra have maintained since the founding of the LTSO. Enjoying a Lone Tree Symphony Orchestra concert in the beautiful Lone Tree Arts Center Main Stage is the perfect way to celebrate this partnership!"

About the Lone Tree Symphony Orchestra:

The Lone Tree Symphony Orchestra is a non-profit community orchestra that offers local musicians a place to share and sharpen their musical talent while performing challenging and beautiful music to enrich the lives of our patrons. In the year 2000, the Lone Tree Symphony Orchestra performed its first concerts under the faithful guidance of Jacinda Bouton as Music Director and Conductor that continues to this day. Since 2011 the Lone Tree Symphony Orchestra regularly performs at the Lone Tree Arts Center. Orchestra members participated in canvassing the City in support of the bond that produced the venue, and helped fund the orchestra shell available for use of all who perform at the center. The orchestra's support from Lone Tree further establishes the City as a strong patron of the arts.
